

The Dreams of Tipu Sultan: Bali: The Sacrifice. Two Plays By Girish Karnad

By Girish Karnad

Oxford University Press, New Delhi, India, 2004. Paperback. Book Condition: New. First Edition. This is a collection of two new plays by Girish Karnad, one of India's foremost dramatists and actors. The first play introduces the reader to the visions of one of India's most famous rulers, and the second, to the inner conflict of violence vs. non-violence of a 10th century king faced with his queen's infidelity. The figure of Tipu Sultan has continued to dominate Indian and British imagination for over two centuries, as the endless flow of scholarly works, ballads, plays and novels about his tempestuous life and tragic end testifies. What however is less well known, is that this man, who spent a large part of his life on horseback, maintained a record of his dreams that he kept concealed from his nearest associates. The Dreams of Tipu Sultan, which explores the inner life of this warrior, political visionary and dreamer, was commissioned by the BBC and broadcast in Britain on the fiftieth anniversary of Indian Independence. Bali: The Sacrifice was staged on June 2002 at the Leicester Haymarket Theatre, UK. The king in the 10th cent. Jain myth, upon which the...
