I. The design is, in general, to promote the spiritual improvement of its members, and of all who can be brought within the reach of its influence. It is strictly a Christian Association: a body of men recognizing the Gospel of Jesus Christ as the only instrument of an effective discipline in this life, as well as the only means of safety and happiness in that which is to come. The Cross of Christ is the ultimate foundation of all culture and improvement. It was that Cross which introduced Hope into our world; and the great principle which that Cross embodies and illustrates - the principle of life from death - has been impressed upon every department of human effort as the condition of success. The grace which the Cross imparts is the only security for character, and no scheme for the amelioration of manners, or the elevation of society, can be permanently effective without the recognition of the Gospel. As the life of our fallen world sprang from the tomb of Jesus, so our first step towards true excellence is to die with him, and then rise with him by the power of the same spirit. While the general design of the Association is spiritual, it seeks to subordinate to its prime end many minor ones, which in themselves are natural and secular. 1. It aims at...
