If this knowledge is within the reach of human understanding, the reason why it is inexplicable, may be justly ascribed to the superstition which has pervaded all nations, till lately, respecting the cultivation of anatomy and physiology by dissection. Indeed, so great was the abhorrence to this only method of obtaining a knowledge of the laws of organic life, that martyrs to humanity have fallen, in daring to attempt it. And it is to be regretted that this black superstition still exists in many parts of this enlightened republic. But as true science and philosophy progressed, superstition was gradually stript of its tyranny, and anatomy and physiology began to flourish.
