Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Four Propositions Sustained Against the Claims of the American Home Missionary Society The Presbyterian Church, in the United States of America, under the care of the General Assembly, has been, for several years, much disquieted by the claims and importunities of a voluntary association called The American Home Missionary Society. This Association has no visible connexion with any branch of the Church of Jesus Christ, being amenable to no ecclesiastical Body. Had this society attended to its own affairs, and left the concerns of others uninterrupted, like many other associations of similar organization, she might have enjoyed the patronage of the friends of Zion, until an auxiliary connection with some wholesome branch, might have secured the enjoyment of a productive union with the True Vine. But when, without affording any security for orthodoxy or piety, in her members or officers, she claims the patronage of the Presbyterian Church, interferes with her plans, distracts her counsels, divides her members, draws off her resources and weakens her strength, by enticing Churches, Presbyteries, and Synods, from their constitutional obligations and plighted faith; it becomes as clear as the mid-day sun, that if there be any thing in the doctrines, discipline, and Missionary operations of the Presbyterian Church worth preserving, the claims and importunities of the A.H. M.Society must be firmly and boldly resisted. Standing in my own place, under a deep sense of duty, I shall attempt, in opposition to the pretensions of this Society, to sustain the following propositions: I. The Lord Jesus Christ has committed the management of Christian Missions to his Church. II .The Presbyterian Church, being one great family of the Church of Jesus...
