Excerpt: .Toronto General Trusts Company by their statement of defence admitted that they had the money in their hands; and submitted to such order as the Court might see fit to make. An affidavit was filed of Selkirk Cross of the city of Montreal, in the Province of Quebec, in which he set forth: 1. I am a duly qualified advocate of the Province of Quebec, and have been for years actively engaged in practice in the Courts of the said Province, and I am familiar with the law of the said Province. 2. According to the law of the Province of Quebec the tutrix of an infant represents the minor in all civil cases, and is authorized and bound to collect and get in all sums belonging to the minor, suing for them if necessary, and is bound to invest all capital moneys received,...
