Doesn't it seem that Christian ladies, especially those of the young adult age, have serious decisions to make as they strive to compete in today's world and yet remain faithful to God's Word? Perhaps, though, the question should be, Should the Christian lady compete with society's way? Are we supposed to compromise our salvation in order to fit in? Who should we identify with? Judy/ Judith is a story that shows how easy it is for a lady to lose sight of herself as a Christian, and how to use scripture to get back to the most important thing—our relationship with our Lord and savior, Jesus Christ. Once that happens, everything else falls back into place, doesn't it? But seek ye first the kingdom of God and His righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you. - Matthew 6:33.
