This type of publication is every thing and helped me seeking ahead and much more. It usually fails to charge too much. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.

Not illustrated. 1869 Excerpt: .Come, the times are dry, and may this be my poison, if ever I spend two more pious, stupid months in all my life! Well, after travelling some days, whom should I light upon but a company of strolling players. The moment I saw them at a distance my heart warmed to them; I had a sort of natural love for everything of the vagabond order. They were employed in settling their baggage, which had been overturned in a narrow way: I offered my assistance, which they accepted, and we soon became so well acquainted that they took me as a servant. This was a paradise to me; they sang, danced, drank, ate, and travelled all at the same time. By the blood of all the Mirabels! I thought I had never lived tiil then; I grew as merry as a grig, and laughed at every word that was spoken. They liked me as much as I liked them. I was a very good figure, as you may see; and though I was poor, I was not modest. I love a stragglng life above all things in the world; sometimes good, sometimes bad; to be warm one day, and cold to-morrow; to eat when we can get it, and drink when--the tankard is out--it stands before me. We arrived that evening at Tenterden, and took a large room at the Greyhound, where we resolved to exhibit Romeo and Juliet, with the funeral procession, the grave, and...
