Montgomery and his new partner Byron thought they were going to take a vacation to Hawaii after they solved their first case. At first, all accounts indicated that it was a vacation, but their second case soon revealed itself. A simple trip to a banana plantation would give the detectives all that they could handle. Byron also gets some bad new that will change his life forever. This so called vacation would also bring out a darker side to the two detectives never seen before. The true test is whether the entire group would get off the island alive.
